

REVISION OF THE PHARMACY HUMAN RESOURCES PLAN FOR PHARMACY

The South African Pharmacy Council (SAPC) is a regulatory authority established in terms of the Pharmacy Act, 53 of 1974. The SAPC hereby invites reputable, qualified service providers, who are experienced researchers, research institutes and/or human resource planning experts/consultants to review the Pharmacy Human Resources Plan ("Pharmacy Human Resources in South Africa, 2011") in relation to the current state of pharmaceutical staffing in South Africa, progress towards the attainment 2011 targets, revision of the Pharmacy Human Resources targets in line with changing health policy and population growth trends, and to develop a new Pharmacy Human Resources in South Africa, 2026.

The successful service provider will also be expected to undertake the project over five (5) months.

Interested companies or persons must submit their company/personal profiles, and Mandatory Administrative documents.

The successful service provider will be required to complete the project and present a report to the relevant task team/committee of Council, as well as the Office of the Registrar.

A compulsory briefing session will be held virtually via Microsoft Teams on 13 July 2026 (13h00-15h00).

RFP documents are on the procurement page found on our website:
